Get the Green Ball Rolling

green sporting events

The Project

Target Audience

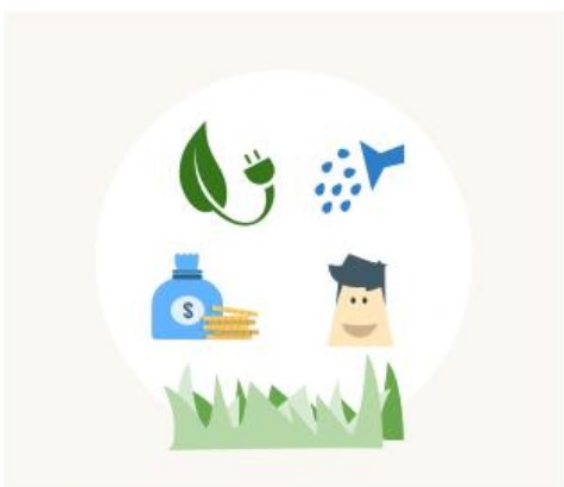
Independent Colleges and Universities, Large High Schools, and other educational facilities with sporting venues

Sporting Venues

Total located at responding audience schools

Top Five Sports Venues

Basketball, Baseball/Softball, Soccer, Football, and Tennis



Top Five Areas of Interest

Energy Efficiency, Turf Management, Cost Savings, Water Efficiency, and Green Buy-in from Staff and Fans

Event Topics

Energy Efficiency

- Develop an energy management plan
- Identify baseline use of energy
- Alternative energy & energy reduction

Water Efficiency

- Where is water being used?
- Savings indoors and outdoors
- Check for leaks and do maintenance

Regulatory Requirements

- Permitting procedures
- Waste management and disposal
- Construction activities

Green Buy-in

- Involve staff, students, and fans
- Posters, artwork, and signage
- Inside and outside the sport venue

Green Resources

- EPA Energy Star, WaterSense, Safer Choice, and Green Sports Programs
- U.S. Green Building Council
- Green Sports Alliance

Paying for Green

- Minimize Costs
- Operational Savings
- Funding Sources

See more resources at http://dca.ky.gov/kyexcel/Pages/Get-The-Green-Ball-Rolling.aspx

Brought to you by:

Division of Compliance Assistance, KY EXCEL Program

DCA.ky.gov
502-564-0323
envhelp@ky.gov

University of Louisville, KY Pollution Prevention Center

KPPC
Kentucky's Resource Center for Environmental Sustainability

Louisville.edu/kppc
800-334-8635 502-852-0965
info@kppc.org