

Approved Degree Programs for Wastewater and Drinking Water Certification

The list below contains the Baccalaureate Degrees which meet the education requirements established in 401 KAR 11:030 and 401 KAR 11:040 for the purposes of obtaining a Class IV drinking water or wastewater certification. These degrees may also substitute for up to fifty percent of the required experience needed for obtaining a class I-III drinking water or wastewater certification. Other degrees related to engineering, biological, environmental, physical or chemical sciences may be considered on a case-by-case basis.

- Agricultural Biotechnology
- Agricultural Economics
- Agricultural and Animal Sciences
- Agricultural and Manufacturing
- Applied Geography with Concentration in Environmental Analysis
- Applied Geography with concentration in GIS
- Bio-engineering
- Biology
- Chemistry
- Chemistry with a concentration in Bio-chemistry
- Chemical Engineering
- Civil Engineering
- Coal Chemistry
- Electrical Engineering
- Environmental Engineering
- Environmental Health
- Geology
- Geo-sciences
- Horticulture, Plant and Soil Sciences
- Industrial Engineering
- Mathematics
- Mechanical Engineering
- Microbiology
- Natural Resources and Environmental Science
- Physics
- Public Health
- Water Resource Management

Degrees obtained in areas other than engineering, biological, environmental, physical or chemical sciences may be substituted for up to twenty-five percent of the required experience. All degrees must be earned from a regionally accredited college or university.

Certifying Professionals

Information: eec.ky.gov/ocp

Ph: 502-564-3170

E-mail: envhelp@ky.gov

